Local Notes.
—Read the new advertisements of Mr. J. H. Cummings in this morning's issue.

—A great deal of grain is yet to be harvested in the county. The harvesting has been hindered by the rainy, damp weather of the present week.

—We have two Osborn Reapers on hand, which we will sell cheaper than any other reaper in the market.

—The Citizens' Cornet Band desires to return thanks to the Thespian Corps and the ladies for the money recently given them for the purpose of purchasing new instruments.

—The little black bugs, supposed to come from the oaks, infect some portions of the town by the millions. They are more numerous of course upon the premises surrounded or adjacent to grain fields. The existence of this nuisance gives one a faint idea of the plagues of Egypt.

—Call at the office of R. J. McCauley & Co. and leave your order for the Waynesboro "Edison" Grain Separator, the best grain sower in the market.

—The sheriff and the floor of the Skating rink together caused a slight shock in town somewhat akin to an earthquake one night recently. The sheriff is well again, but Mr. Boy complains of the damage done to the floor of the Academy of Music. Mutual friends are trying to effect a compromise between the parties.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Solomon Wolfe, of Dallas, Texas, and Miss Etta Wolfe, who has been spending several months in New York city, are both on a visit to the family of Mr. S. Wolfe in this place. We wish both of them a pleasant sojourn in Winnsboro.

ARRESTED.—David Kelly who struck Mr. Jesse Terrace a severe blow on the head with an axe on the 3d of June near White Oak, was arrested on last Sunday night at Buckhead, by Mr. M. Y. Milling and Mr. Wm. Hamilton and safely lodged in jail. We are glad to learn that Mr. Terrace has nearly recovered from his wound.

CHESTER'S RECORD.—The Chester Reporter says: "Our county treasurer of this county made collections of taxes last month as follows: State tax, $2,778.31; county tax, $1,666.59; railroad tax, $2,222.23; school tax, $1,487.60; poll tax, $55.50. Total, $8,210.23. The May collection was $8,322.22."

DEATH.—Mrs. Sarah Simpson, wife of Mr. John Simpson, died last week at Hallsville. She was about thirty years of age, a consistent member of the Beaver Creek Baptist Church, and many would testify to her worth. Her many friends in Chester and Fairfield counties will be sorry to learn of her death.

STORM.—A wind storm of some proportions visited the northwestern portion of the county in the neighborhood of Albion in the early part of this week. There was no rainfall of any consequence, but considerable damage was done the fencing in the neighborhood and many large trees were blown down. No further injury resulted from the storm.

DEATH.—The little daughter of Mr. Joseph Gilbert, of Gaffney City, was buried in the graveyard of the Presbyterian church in this place on last Tuesday, the 10th inst. The Rev. D. E. Jordan officiated at the funeral ceremonies. Mr. Gilbert was formerly a resident of Winnsboro, and his friends here and elsewhere will sympathize with him in his sorrow and affliction.

GLADDEN'S GROVE CLUB.—At a meeting of the Gladden's Grove Democratic Club on last Saturday, the 7th inst., the following-named gentlemen were elected delegates to the County Convention: Messrs. Richard Featherston, John M. Gayden, J. M. Higgins, Daniel Hall, Jr., and Edward D. Mobley; Alternates, Dr. J. A. Scott and Mr. John Johnston. The meeting was small but all necessary business was transacted. The club adjourned to meet on the first Saturday in each month at three o'clock.

DEATH OF MISS HOFFMAN.—Miss Hollie Hoffman, daughter of Mr. G. P. Hoffman, of Blythehood, died at Asheville, N. C., on Tuesday, the 10th inst., after an illness of several months. This sad event has cast a gloom over the community where she was so well known and so much beloved. Miss Hoffman had frequently visited Winnsboro, and always made warm friends here. The afflicted family have the sympathy of all. The funeral services were held at Blythehood on last.

CADET GAILLARD.—Cadet D. D. Gaillard, of the West Point Academy, fifth in the graduating class, enjoys the distinction of going to the corps of engineers. Mr. Gaillard is a host of friends in Winnsboro, and are both pleased and proud of this creditable career. It is a recent issue of a Northern paper that Mr. Gaillard had been in the charge of a cavalry drill.

THE CROSBY INSTITUTE.—The Closing Exercises—An Academy of which Fairfield Should Be Proud. The Crosby Institute closed with five days examination on the 18th inst. The exercises on the last day, which were as usual well attended, were entirely voluntary with the pupils and in the Town Hall on Tuesday afternoon, the 10th inst. The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The following is the result of the election:

President—T. H. Ketchin.
Vice-President—J. H. Cummings.
Secretary—W. C. Beatty.
Treasurer—C. M. Chandler.
1st Director—H. B. McMaster.
2nd Director—W. L. Timmons.
3rd Director—Louis Samuels.
4th Director—W. J. Elliott.
Chief Engineer—W. A. Beatty.
1st Assistant Engineer—D. R. Flenniken.
2nd Assistant Engineer—B. J. Quatlebaum.
Axemen—H. Y. Milling, H. L. Elliott, Jr.
Pipemen—J. M. Elliott, Jr., C. P. Gladden.
Solicitor—J. E. McDonald.
There being no further business, the company adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

ENTERTAINMENT AT WHITE OAK.—A very enjoyable and successful entertainment was given by the Young People's Literary Club at White Oak on the 6th inst. A neat stage had been erected in the school house which for the time served all the purposes of a theatre. The whole programme was successfully rendered by the young people, each and every one of whom seemed to enter into the spirit of their respective roles. The programme consisted of tableaux, charades, instrumental and vocal music, all of which was exceptionally well rendered for amateurs, many of whom showed much artistic skill. An admission fee of twenty-five cents was charged, and netted about thirty dollars, which we understand will be devoted to some charitable purpose. With a "Good Night" the entertainment closed. The Literary Club was formed principally from scholars in the school of Mr. J. S. Brice, although many young people not connected with the school are members. The whole entertainment was under the supervision of Mr. Brice and Miss Maggie Robinson, and much of the success of the performance was due to their efforts. We hope the Literary Club may see fit to give another performance, and with their small experience they no doubt will be still more proficient.

CROPS IN THE COUNTY.—The following partial report of the crop prospects in Fairfield county appears in the last monthly report of the Department of Agriculture:
TOWNSHIP NO. 1.—The spring has been too cold, and on gray lands rather too wet for wheat and oats. Our pastures, which are never sown with grain, are generally covered with spontaneous growth of wire and Egyptian (Means or Johnson) grass, with an intermixture of cane fringing the water courses. There are in addition to this pastures an aggregate area of about twenty acres of luxuriant clover on red lands and a few small patches of barley. The natural growth of this pasture land, which was considerably retarded by the cold until the middle of April, is now quite luxuriant and rapidly developing.

WALLACEVILLE.—The writer has kept a cow for three months, January, February, March and April, on three and a half acres sown in rye, with no other food, and she gave an abundance of milk.
Mr. Ziox—Lucerne is the favorite feeding plant, while clover and orchard grasses are the best for hay and cow food. There is never any difficulty in getting a stand and it is not killed by cold in winter nor sun in summer.
BEAR CREEK.—There is but little grass in pastures, except broomsedge and Japan clover. On these the cattle keep in good condition.
BRUCE.—Our pastures generally are old fields and are covered with wild clover. Some few pastures are on creek bottoms too much subject to overflow for cultivation and afford fine natural pastures for cattle. Very little grain of any kind sown for pasture.

HOREB.—No grasses sown for pasture. Some barley and lucerne patches for spring cutting.
THE BATTLE OF DREWRY'S BLUFF.
The Gallant Defenders of the Flag of the Seventh Battalion.
The following communication appears in the News and Courier:
In your supplement of the 31st ult. in the article entitled the "Battle of Drewry's Bluff" you print concerning "officers and men mentioned for gallant conduct" in Hagood's Brigade, "in Seventh Battalion, South Carolina Volunteers, Sergt. J. H. Onby, Company H, color-bearer, killed."
There was no Onby in that command.

Sergt. A. P. Irby, of Company H, was wounded at Drewry's Bluff on the 16th, and promoted as ensign "for gallantry" on the 25th May, 1864. He is living, an honored and respected citizen of Laurens county.
The first color-bearer killed at Drewry's Bluff was Sergt. J. H. Outz, of Company H, Edgefield. The next killed was Sergt. J. B. Robertson, of Company B, Fairfield. The colors then fell to Sergt. George W. Kenning, of Company F, Lancaster, who was badly wounded. The fourth color-bearer was Sergt. Preston Cooper, of Company B, Fairfield. Both of the latter were living at the last time I heard of them.

Young Cooper brought out the flag, his staff was riddled and shot in two, and his wounds had fifty-seven bullet-holes through them and were as clean as on the day of their presentation, without a single rent or stain.
Wm. M. Thomas.
Charleston, S. C., June 2, 1882.
Judge Thomas is in error when he says that Sergt. A. P. Irby "is living an honored and respected citizen of Laurens county." Mr. Irby is a citizen of Fairfield and not of Laurens. Mr. Cooper referred to in the communication above was afterwards shot in the leg at the battle of Weldon Roads with the same battle flag in his hands. From this wound Mr. Cooper lost his leg. It might be well to add that every one of the color guard was killed or shot down except Mr. Cooper and the flag though punctured with fifty-seven bullet-holes not a one of the thirteen stars were touched.

THE RIDGEWAY CLUB.
The Ridgeway Democratic Club met pursuant to notice at Saturday, June 14, 1884.
The following delegates to the County Convention were elected—un-wholly extemporaneous, the Board having acted on the advanced conviction that the pupils should struggle for their own accord for the acquisition of ready, practical knowledge; and that it is on the whole better for the pupils to fail, if necessary, in an examination than for the public to be even temporarily deceived with elaborate displays whose preparation had squandered away perhaps two months of valuable time. The brevity of the time demanded a mutilation of the programme. The part exhibited consisted of competitive skill from volunteers in spelling with the book, on the blackboards, (of which there were about a thousand square feet), and "by heart"; in reading; in writing on paper and blackboards; in arithmetic; in debating the subject, "Which should we make our surplus crop, Cotton or Grain?"; in singing; and in fancy needle-work. All these were agreeably interspersed with vocal and instrumental music, and the occasion appeared to be one of much credit to the competitors, of entire satisfaction to the patrons, and of great enjoyment to "one and all." The competition was so close as to render the decisions of the Awarding Committee a matter of some embarrassment. The following prizes, given by the Principal and awarded by the various committees, were presented in his usual happy to Miss Mary L. Weir, for best spelling with the book; one pocket knife to Mr. Chas. A. McLurkin for best spelling on blackboard; one preserve-dish to Miss Sallie C. Chappell, of Jenkinsville, for best spelling "by heart"; one pair Suspenders and box of pens to Mr. Jno. J. Robertson, of Lancaster, for best reading; goblets and a fan jointly to Misses Sallie C. Chappell and Callie A. B. Crosby for best penmanship on blackboards; one toothbrush to Miss Sallie C. Chappell for best penmanship on paper; goblets and a toothbrush jointly to Miss Fanny D. Crosby and Jno. J. Robertson for best arithmetic; one pocket knife to Mr. Jno. J. Robertson for best debating—decision of the question in favor of the negative; on preserve-dish to Miss Callie A. B. Crosby for best singing; goblets and spoon-holder jointly to Misses Sallie C. Chappell and Maggie P. Robertson for best fancy needle-work; suspenders, pocket knife and a box of pens jointly to Messrs. Chas. McLurkin and Jno. J. Robertson for best general deportment and proficiency; pocket knife to Master J. Bennie Johns for best attendance; box of pens and goblets to Miss Callie A. B. Crosby for best assistance throughout the session in the singing department.

Seeing what we have seen so well wrought out, contrary to all the established views in teaching, we must believe that this Institute, which has visibly come to enjoy the respect, confidence, esteem and well-wishing of all the intelligence of the surrounding country, is evidently destined to retire some of the treasured tenets of pedagogy, and marks a new educational era for this section. That it deserves success and is rapidly winning it cannot be doubted by any one who attend the impromptu examinations.

THE WINNSBORO CLUB.
Pursuant to the call of the president the Winnsboro Democratic Club met in the Town Hall on Tuesday, the 10th inst., at 3.30 o'clock p. m. The secretary stated that the minute book of the Club had been misplaced and could not be found.

Upon motion of Mr. Reynolds the president was directed to cast at his leisure the unanimous vote of the Club for executive and registration committees.
Col. Rion moved that this Club instruct its delegates to the County Convention to vote for delegates to the Congressional and Judicial Conventions who will support the candidates that are the choice of this Club, and that the choice of this Club for member of Congress and Solicitor be now determined by a ballot for each office respectively. Carried.

Hon. H. A. Gaillard was named by acclamation as the choice of this Club for Congress, and J. E. McDonald, Esq., was named as the choice of this Club for Solicitor.

The following delegates were elected to the County Convention: Messrs. J. H. Rion, G. H. McMaster, F. Gerig, J. H. Cummings, R. B. Hanahan, H. A. Gaillard; Alternates, J. C. Caldwell, R. J. McCauley.
The Club then adjourned subject to the call of the President.

IN MEMORIAM.
William F. Watt.
Ah! how sad to give back to earth one so loved, so noble and so good, whose winning smile attracted all one so eminently qualified to complete our happiness here—but, alas, the choicest fruit in the vineyard was also known to our Heavenly Father. He was called to that far away home of the soul. His favorite song was "Home of the Soul." How often have I listened to his dear voice in singing these words: "Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land, So free from all sorrow and pain; With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands, To meet one another again."
Mr. Watt was born and raised in Fairfield county, South Carolina. He married Miss Sallie J. Bell, of Mississippi, and moved to Lind Grove, Louisiana, about 1839, where for thirty-three years he made his home. Two years ago he moved to Starkville, Mississippi, where after a long illness and much suffering he died on the 29th ult. He was a patient sufferer, and his death was that of a Christian. He said he was "going home." For many years he was a member of the Methodist church and superintendent of the Sunday School at Lind Grove. The Lord loved a cheerful giver, then how much he loved him for his charity. He leaves a wife and son to mourn his loss.
Oh, fond wife, who for thirty-five years was his loving companion, grieve not too much—your loss is his eternal gain, and in a little while you will meet the husband you love so well. I never saw a more devoted couple—
"No frost, Their home's threshold ever crossed, Come what might of good or ill, Mutual love kept shining still, And when life some joy denied, Love found its home side by side, With the trust they learned to know, Five and thirty years ago."

Though it had been many years since Mr. Watt had lived in Fairfield, he still loved the place of his birth, and often spent his summers here with his many relatives and friends. Such visits were as bright oases to his relatives here who loved him so fondly; but, alas! our dear relative has crossed that bourne from whence no traveler returns, and this earth will know him no more. Farewell, dear friend—we hope to meet you "over there."
M. Fairfield County, South Carolina.

IN MEMORIAM.
William F. Watt.
Ah! how sad to give back to earth one so loved, so noble and so good, whose winning smile attracted all one so eminently qualified to complete our happiness here—but, alas, the choicest fruit in the vineyard was also known to our Heavenly Father. He was called to that far away home of the soul. His favorite song was "Home of the Soul." How often have I listened to his dear voice in singing these words: "Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land, So free from all sorrow and pain; With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands, To meet one another again."
Mr. Watt was born and raised in Fairfield county, South Carolina. He married Miss Sallie J. Bell, of Mississippi, and moved to Lind Grove, Louisiana, about 1839, where for thirty-three years he made his home. Two years ago he moved to Starkville, Mississippi, where after a long illness and much suffering he died on the 29th ult. He was a patient sufferer, and his death was that of a Christian. He said he was "going home." For many years he was a member of the Methodist church and superintendent of the Sunday School at Lind Grove. The Lord loved a cheerful giver, then how much he loved him for his charity. He leaves a wife and son to mourn his loss.
Oh, fond wife, who for thirty-five years was his loving companion, grieve not too much—your loss is his eternal gain, and in a little while you will meet the husband you love so well. I never saw a more devoted couple—
"No frost, Their home's threshold ever crossed, Come what might of good or ill, Mutual love kept shining still, And when life some joy denied, Love found its home side by side, With the trust they learned to know, Five and thirty years ago."

Though it had been many years since Mr. Watt had lived in Fairfield, he still loved the place of his birth, and often spent his summers here with his many relatives and friends. Such visits were as bright oases to his relatives here who loved him so fondly; but, alas! our dear relative has crossed that bourne from whence no traveler returns, and this earth will know him no more. Farewell, dear friend—we hope to meet you "over there."
M. Fairfield County, South Carolina.
